

PRIVILEGED - ATTORNEY-CLIENT

Memorandum on the Order of Succession

PRIVILEGED. Pursuant to the Act of Succession, the Crown is to descend first to Prince Edward and the heirs of his body.

Failing such heirs, to the Lady Mary, and failing her, to the Lady Elizabeth, each on the conditions the Act prescribes.

A council of regency is named to govern during the minority of Prince Edward. This advice is privileged and prepared for the King alone.

Respectfully submitted. — T. Cranmer
